THOMAS LABILLE

The wines of Thomas Labille have a history that begins in 1987 with Etienne Boileau and Domaine du Chardonnay. Etienne founded Domaine du Chardonnay with partners Christian Simon and William Nahan. Together the three formed, a small partnership combining 9 hectares of vineyard. Held under the name Domaine du Chardonnay, would be sold as Etienne Boileau, Etienne himself acting as winemaker. In 2018 Etienne, Christian and William decided to retire. William's son, Arnaud took over managing the estate, still held under the Domaine du Chardonnay and began working with winemaker Thomas Labille, formerly of Domaine Laroche. Thomas and Etienne worked alongside each other in both the 2017 and 2018 vintages. In keeping with the history of the Domaine, the wines now bear Thomas' name. His deft hand showcases the pure, mineral character of Chablis while making wines of intensity and freshness. Domaine du Chardonnay is quietly becoming one of the pillars of Chablis under the steady hands of Thomas and the careful leadership of Arnaud.

Domaine des Beaumont

DOMAINE DES BEAUMONT

Domaine des Beaumont has a long history in the Côte D'Or where the Beaumont family has farmed for seven generations. Now helmed by brothers Thierry and Vincent Beaumont, it was Thierry's vision that created the winery Massanois represents today. Born in 1964, Thierry began working his family's parcels in the 1980's. In 1991 he fully took over the property and sold the entirety of each harvest to négociants from '91 –'98, as the family had done previously. In 1996, Thierry was able to compile resources to build their first winemaking facility, adding thermo-regulation tanks in 1997 and finally, producing the first vintage under Domaine des Beaumont in 1999. Thierry manages all aspects of the vineyard and winemaking, along with his son.

DOMAINE RION
Jean - Charles

DOMAINE JEAN-CHARLES RION PROPRIÉTAIRE-RÉCOLTANT À PREMEAUX F-21700 NUITS-SAINT-GEORGES

DOMAINE JEAN-CHARLES RION

The Rion family history goes back five generations to 1896 in Premaux and Nuits-Saint-Georges. The Domaine was established in 1955 by Daniel Rion with a mere 2 ha of vines, selling the majority of his wine to negociants until the 1978 vintage. Daniel's sons Patrice (who departed in 2000), Christophe, Olivier and eventually his daughter Pascale would join him at the winery. As their vineyard holdings grew, Domaine Rion became a standard bearer of old-school vin de gard Burgundy. As Clive Coates puts it: "This is an important domaine. Quality is high and dependable and if I find a 'house style' in the wines, a family resemblance, I don't quibble too much because the wines are clean and fruity and the tannins have become increasingly sophisticated over the years." Today Jean-Charles, son of Olivier and grandson of Daniel runs the estate. They now manage 6 ha across Chambolle-Musigny, Vosne Romanée, Nuits-Saint-Georges, and the Grand Crus of Clos Vougeot and Échezeaux. The winemaking remains traditional.

DOMAINE

DOMAINE JEAN-PIERRE MALDANT

Situated in Ladoix-Serrigny, at the foot of the hill of Corton in the north of the Côte de Beaune, the Maldant's have been making wine in Burgundy for five generations, since 1895. In 1998, Jean-Pierre Maldant decided to give up his job working for the Hospices de Beaune and devote himself entirely to his own Domaine. His son, Pierre-François Maldant has now succeeded him at the head of the family Domaine, where he has been making the wines since 2010. Although the family has a rich tradition and history in the region, Pierre-François is one of the new rising stars of Burgundy.

DOMAINE MAZILLY
— PÈRE & FILS —

DOMAINE MAZILLY PÈRE ET FILS

Located in Meloisey, a small village in the Hautes-Côtes de Beaune with a viticultural tradition that dates back centuries, in the early 1950s, Pierre Mazilly succeeded his grandfather to begin serious work at this domaine. Eventually, Pierre's son Frédéric and now his grandson Aymeric and wife, Alysso have taken up the torch and continue the family tradition. The Mazilly family takes care of all stages of production, from the work of the vineyard to bottling, in order to always offer high-quality wines. The estate's 18 hectares in total are located mainly in the Côtes de Beaune, Pommard, Volnay, Meursault, and Beaune are their centerpieces. They also work in renowned appellations such as Gevrey-Chambertin.

MAISON CHAMPY

LA PLUS ANCIENNE MAISON DE BOURGOGNE

- 1720 -

MAISON CHAMPY

Established in 1720 by Edmé Champy, operating as the oldest house in Burgundy, for three centuries the Maison has been instrumental in building the international reputation of Burgundy and French Savoir Faire. Indeed, Champy's story is interwoven with some of the most important French historical figures of the 19th and 20th centuries, including Louis Pasteur and Gustave Eiffel. Since 1999, winemaker Dimitri Bazas has been at the helm, overseeing production and viticulture. Dimitri, whose résumé includes working for such iconic names such as Christophe Roumier, Marquis d'Angerville, Bonneau du Martray and others, has identified key vineyard expansion into top sites of the Côte d'Or and is largely responsible for the Maison's conversion to organic farming over the last two decades. The winemaking follows traditional Burgundian practices, utilizing indigenous yeast across the range, whole cluster pressing for the whites, and barrel fermentation. For the reds, stem inclusion is selected plot-by-plot, cold macerations for approximately 3 days. Fermentations last up to 3 weeks. The wines see a combination of pigeage and remontage. Aging in Burgundy barrique for both red and white extends between 10-16 months and can include up to 30% new wood.

DOMAINE MICHELOT

DOMAINE MICHELOT

The Michelot family has been farming in Meursault for six generations. Their holdings comprise more than 19 hectares, including the most prestigious premier cru and lieux-dit vineyards of the appellation. The Domaine achieved widespread recognition in the 1960s under the direction of the charismatic Bernard Michelot. Domaine Michelot now flourishes in the hands Bernard's grandson, Nicholas Mestre. Bernard was one of the first to bottle Michelot's various lieux-dits separately, notably Narvaux and Sous la Velle as well as Clos du Cromin and Clos St Felix, the latter being more or less the back garden of the domaine. They also hold premier crus in Charmes, Genevrières, Perrières, Poruzots and Gouttes D'Or. The Meursault vineyards are made up of a number of "terroirs" – parcels of land with individual characteristics of soil, drainage and orientation – and their distinct personalities yield a diverse range of wines. These benchmark Meursaults are refined with tremendous depth and broad aromas of ripe orchard fruits and pain grillé that combine with a tight, complex mineral edge. They also have wonderful holdings in Santenay, including premier crus La Comme rouge, and Gravières blanc. The domaine has been organic since 2012 with ECOCERT certification since 2020 including some biodynamic touches.

CHALET POUILLY

Located on a hillside overlooking the village of Pouilly, Domaine du Chalet Pouilly has been family owned and operated since 1850, passing down expertise and passion from one generation to another. The 8.5 hectares are shared between Pouilly Fuissé (5 hectares), Saint-Véran (3 hectares) and Mâcon-Soltré planted in 2009 (0.5 hectares). The estate practices sustainable wine-growing methods and some plots are grown according to the organic standards.

Today, Chalet Pouilly is run by Bernard and Marie-Eve Léger, with their daughter Fabienne. They practice traditional wine-growing methods, respecting the terroir, and their philosophy is to allow nature to express itself through the vinification process in order to create rich-flavored wines with a rustic touch. Their vines are old, and their soil rich and calcareous.

DOMAINE LAURENT CHARDIGNY

Sitting at an altitude of 400m on limestone and clay soils, on east to south facing slopes overlooking the village of Azé, in the heart of the Mâconnais, Domaine de Rochebin was established in 1921 by the Marillier family. Today, Mickaël Marillier runs the estate, with winemaker Laurent Chardigny guiding all viticulture and winemaking. Laurent joined the estate in 2008, and immediately began implementing sustainability practices across all areas of the estate and winery. Under his own label, fruit from the Rochebin vineyard is treated with the lightest of touches. The resulting wines are fresh, elegant, pure expressions of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir.

DOMAINE ROMY

DOMAINE ROMY

Domaine Romy is a property of 20 hectares in the "Pierres Dorées" area in the south of Beaujolais. Dominique and his son Nicolas Romy are 10th generation winemakers tied to the land. They cultivate their vines in a natural manner, strictly adhering to Terra Vitis requirements – their main objective is to maintain the biological balance of the vines and soil with as little human intervention as possible. Old-fashioned agriculture is king at Domaine Romy, with grass growing between the vines and special attention dedicated to green harvesting in order to lower the yields and maintain the high quality of the grapes.

LACHE MOI LA GRAPPE

The Château de la Terrière, makers of Lache Moi La Grappe has stood in Cercié since the 14th century, in the heart of the Beaujolais region. It is one of the oldest estates in the region. After belonging to successive generations of lords, Château de la Terrière was bought in 2003 and important works have been done in the cellars and in the vineyards. He is today managed by Grégory Barbet, helped by Frédéric Maignet, winemaker for the Estate. Their aim is to give the wine the time to fully express itself, to create batches with great potential for aging. The vines cover a total of 28 hectares and are 50 years old on average with 7 hectares in Cru Régnié int the lieu dit of "La Sibérie." They extend due south, to the mid-slope on pink granite with a mix of sand and stones. The aim of Frédéric Maignet, who is in charge of the château, is to give the wine enough time to fully develop its expression and reflect the complexity of the terroir. The vinification is traditional whole-bunch, followed by maceration for about 25 days and no new oak.

LA CHAPELLE BIZOT

LA CHAPELLE BIZOT

Founded in 1850 by Comte de Raousset, situated in the heart of Beaujolais, the 35-hectare estate extends over the prestigious Chiroubles, Fleurie and Morgon Crus. They give the wines nuances and typicality specific to each of the parcels planted with Gamay Noir and Chardonnay. The history of Domaine de la Chapelle Bizot is closely bound up with the Beaujolais region and the commune of Chiroubles in particular. Rooted in the Beaujolais terroir since the end of the 19th century, the estate has contributed to the influence national and international of Chiroubles, Fleurie and Morgon vintages since its beginnings.
