

Sandy Giovese Vino Rosso is a 3-Liter box of Italian red wine made in the idyllic region of Le Marche on the Adriatic Sea. The name of the wine is a homage to one of Italy's most ancient and treasured red wine grapes, Sangiovese, grown throughout the central part of the Bel Paese. It's also a playful reference to the alter ego of its creator, Amy Ezrin, accomplished Italian wine expert and importer.

Made from sustainably farmed grapes, Sangiovese is blended with a healthy percentage of Trebbiano, a native Italian white grape, to ensure the wine is light on its feet and smooth on the finish.

Advantages of Wine in a Box:

- Every 3-Liter box contains the equivalent of FOUR glass bottles of wine
- One 3-Liter box has ONE-TENTH the carbon footprint of just ONE traditional glass bottle
- For that wine you drink on school nights, on pizza night, at an outdoor event, a box of wine is THE most eco-friendly packaging
- With the insulated, collapsible, bioplastic bag inside the box, accessed via a handy, easily extracted tap, the wine will be perfectly preserved from the first glass to the twentieth

"91 points, Best Box Wine" -- VinePair.com

"Rockstar emoji!" - Andre Mack for Bon Appetit

Sandy Giovese Vino Rosso 2020 3L | 106071 Sandy Giovese Vino Rosso – Boxed Wine (3L/6)
DI: $72/1

87% Sangiovese, 13% Trebbiano, fermented in stainless steel vats with 7-day Sangiovese and 4-hour Trebbiano maceration. Exploding with fresh cut violets and ripe Bing cherry, this easy-drinking, low-alcohol, light-bodied red wine offers juicy cherry and pomegranate fruit with aromas of wisteria, finishing with a silken texture and a crisp, clean, fruity finish. Serve chilled.

