

SALCHETO

TOSCANA

THE FIASCO 2019

Fiasco was the most popular wine container of Tuscany for centuries, a large glass jug wrapped with straw, which allowed workers in the field to keep the wine fresh. This high quality bag in box is a contemporary proposal of similar valuable drinking: an easy to carry wine of the best quality, with a long time pouring window once open, and an incredibly positive impact on climate.

The 2019 vintage is a really interesting one thanks to an ideal climate: a harsh winter and a warm summer but with some rain, even in the delicate stage of final maturation, although never exceeding. Finally a really good millesime, bringing together freshness and elegance with a full and intense fruit.
