

VILLA SCHINOSA/PUGLIA

The beautiful coastal town of Trani offers much for the eye: The fortress of Frederic the Second, a beautiful cathedral, a picturesque fisherman's harbor, but agriculture has almost disappeared from this part of Italy. That producers like Villa Schinosa are investing in the development of agriculture again is a blessing! The aristocratic Capece Minutolo family of Naples for sure did not come to this part of the world in order to live the hype and fashion of wine, rather a true love for agriculture motivated them to finally leave things behind in Naples. Here at Villa Schinosa they have established a small winery reviving the traditions of the past in a very unlikely area. Though history wants that with the help of Federico II, a sweet wine was famed from this land called Moscato di Trani - and enologist Cristoforo Pastore had a vague memory of how delicious this wine could be, and his dreams were realized here at Villa Schinosa.

APPELLATIONS: Puglia IGP, Puglia Bianco IGP, Moscato di Puglia IGP, Puglia Rosso IGP, Puglia Rosato IGP

LOCATION: Trani, BT

REGION: Puglia

VITICULTURE: Sustainable

YEAST: Selected yeasts

VARIETALS: Aglianico, Bombino Bianco, Bombino Nero, Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Syrah, Nero di Troia, Fiano, Falanghina, Primitivo

SOIL TYPE: Of medium structure, calcareous tendentially clay

ENOLOGIST: Dott. Cristoforo Pastore

VITICULTURIST: Corrado Capece Minutolo

HECTARES VINEYARD: 60

TOT PROD BOTTLES: 270,000