TASTING NOTES

Vibrant nose of red fruits: strawberries, blueberries, blackberries, currants, accompanied by the floral notes typical of Mencía. Toffee, licorice and mineral notes add depth. The palate is rich and fruity but balanced with great acidity and freshness.

This wine is ideal for pasta, cheeses and sausages.

"Brothers Daniel and Gonzalo Amigo returned to their roots - the vineyards of their grandparents. More than 80 years old, these vines are the soul of their wines."

ABOUT THE REGION

The wine region of Bierzo is a small, rural and remote ancient region in the northwestern corner of Castilla y León, touching the eastern border of Galicia.

Until recently, it remained unknown to the international wine markets. However, thanks to the wave of investment and innovation that swept many parts of Spain in the late 1990s, the wine region of Bierzo now counts as one of the country's rising stars, on a par with other wine hotspots, such as Rueda, Penedès, Toro and Jumilla.

The Bierzo viticultural area consists of two parts: Bierzo Alto (high Bierzo), a mineral-rich and mountainous terrain where terraced vineyards are sewn into the slopes, and Bierzo Bajo (low Bierzo), a wide and verdant plain.
